25th Annual Garage Sale

25th Annual Gi-normous Garage Sale

It is that time again. April is your "get ready" month for the Annual Montgomery Garage Sale held on Saturday May 03.

Sale starts at 8:00am and runs until 5:00pm (this is what the MCA ad will read in the Star Phoenix and billboard). If your garage sale will be held outside of these hours, then you are encouraged to place your own notice in the Star Phoenix (and elsewhere). If you have not been thinking about it or planning from last year, now is the time. Search your basement for the cobweb-clad items of days gone by. Scrounge in your garage for those items that you keep moving around but never use. Kids, have you got some old toys that you no longer play with; sporting equipment that you have outgrown? Gather it up and put a tag on it.

As mentioned above, the MCA will be posting a billboard at the corner of Dundonald and 11th as well as taking out an ad in the Star Phoenix. You, as garage sale vendors, may want to consider curbside signs (note the city's policy on signage), balloons, and such. Also consider moving your vehicles off-street if possible.

Montgomery Place street names, HMCS Haida continued from last month. She was converted to a destroyer escort and began refit in July 1950 which saw various new armaments and sensors and communications systems. She was recommissioned on 15 March, 1952. Haida relieved Nootka on 18 November off the west coast of Korea and had an uneventful patrol, returning to Sasebo to replenish on 29 November. She patrolled off the east coast of Korea beginning on 4 December and took part with USS Moore (DE-240) in shelling of a railway yard in Songjin as well as a coastal battery and North Korean troops. On 18-19 December, Haida attacked an enemy train but missed the escaping locomotive which hid in a nearby tunnel, thus not joining the exclusive "Trainbusters Club". Haida returned to patrol on 3 January 1953 and escorted aircraft carriers as well as performing coastal bombardments. On 29 January, Haida entered the "Trainbusters Club" after attacking a train north of Iwon and also detonated a drifting anti-ship mine on her return to Yang do. She departed Sasebo on 12 June, heading west through the Suez Canal and arrived in Halifax on 22 July 1953. Haida departed Halifax for a second Korean tour on 14 December 1953, passing through the Panama Canal. Despite the cease fire, infractions by North Korea and China were occurring, thus the need for a naval presence around South Korea. She departed the Korean theatre on 1 November 1954 and headed for Halifax via the Suez Canal once again. Following the Korean operations, Haida embarked on Cold War anti-submarine warfare duties with other NATO units in the North Atlantic and West Indies. HMCS Haida retired on display in 1965 on Toronto's waterfront for 40 years. She is now a National Historic Site of Canada and is a museum ship on the Hamilton waterfront.

Rockingham Street

Brigadier General John Meredith Rockingham (1911-1987) commanded

the 9th Canadian Infantry Brigade in the campaign in Northwest Europe during the last year of WWII. "Rocky", as he was affectionately called, was recalled service in 1950 as the senior Canadian soldier in the Korean War. His masterful tactics, and determination that the Canadian Army would not shirk from its assigned duties, was instrumental in the success that the Canadian Army contributed to Korea.

Major General Rockingham began his military career in 1935 as a lieutenant in the Canadian Scottish Militia Regiment. During the Second World War he achieved the rank of brigadier. On return to Canada he assumed command of the 6th Canadian Pacific Force. When the Japanese surrendered he retired from the Regular Force and continued on page 2 accepted a Reserve Force appointment as Commander 15th Canadian Infantry Brigade.

In August 1950, The Minister of National Defence recalled “Rocky” from civilian life to organize and train the 5,000-man Canadian Army Special Force to serve in Korea. He commanded the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade from 9 August 1950 to 27 April 1952. When he returned to Canada he served at National Defence Headquarters, then in 1953 appointed Commander, 3rd Infantry Brigade and in 1954 Commander, 1st Canadian Infantry Division. In 1957 he served as General Officer Commanding Quebec Command and in 1961, GOC Western Command.

General Rockingham died on 16 July 1987.

Items to consider for making a better garage sale:

- change (both paper and coin) and price by the quarter dollar;
- price tags;
- helpers;
- used grocery bags to put sold items in for the customer;
- tunes to make your sale more inviting;
- a “man-table” strategically placed at the end of your driveway to entice the reluctant male shoppers;
- kids table (crayons, blank paper, lemonade, stuff to keep the little ones happy);
- bargain table (items bagged or boxed for sale as a lot/group);
- consider putting prices on the pieces you are selling; try using colored dot-stickers and then make a chart of the colours and prices;
- when pricing, a rule-of-thumb is to consider 1/3 of the new price, but consider the age and “leftover usability” of the item as well;
- if possible, have your sale laid out the night before, as you will have little time in the morning;

This report provides information on property crime for the previous month for your community. These statistics are collected through a city mapping system. Please be aware that the boundaries for your Community and the boundaries for the mapping system may not be identical and therefore some addresses in the Community Association Report may have been unintentionally included or excluded.

To understand your Community Association Report, it may be helpful to know that the statistics only reflect incidents reported to the Saskatoon Police Service, and not necessarily the total number of incidents, as many go unreported. To protect the identity of the victims, incidents are reported by the block in which they occurred and not by the specific address. A break and enter to a residence, includes a break and enter to an attached garage. A break and enter to other, includes a break and enter to an unattached garage or shed. Theft under, includes the offense of shoplifting from a business. Mischief includes the offenses of property damage and graffiti.

Garage Sale Tips

first impressions are still the rule, put

- your "good stuff" where browsers will see it first; try putting interesting items near the end of your driveway;
- Items that are not for sale should be put away or clearly marked as "not for sale";
- If it works, turn it on or at least make sure it can be demonstrated (electrical cord, batteries, etc);
- tell everyone you know (and strangers on the street) about the garage sale;
- it is a good idea to have your pets contained during the sale so the excitement does not encourage them to nip or run out in the street.
- if your sale will fall outside the posted times (Saturday from 8:00a.m. – 5:00p.m) you may want to take your own ad in the Star Phoenix.

And don't forget the most important thing, this is supposed to be a fun day for family, friends and neighbors.
