Happy New Year and the Best Wishes from Montgomery Community Association for your family and friends. 2008 already and just seems we all survived the 2000 scare.

Montgomery Trivia question: The year the Annual Garage Sale started. Possibly around 1983.

If a statue in a park of a person on a horse has both front legs in the air, the person died in battle. If the horse has one front leg in the air the person died as result of wounds received in battle. If the horse has all four legs on the ground, the person died of natural causes.

Continuing in our series of stories behind the street names, we introduce General Andrew George Latta McNaughton. Born February 25, 1887, he was an army officer, politician and diplomat before his death, July 11, 1966. Born in Moosomin, Saskatchewan (at the time in the Northwest Territories), McNaughton was a student at Bishop's College School in Lennoxville, Quebec. He earned a B.A. from McGill University in Montreal in 1910 and an M.Sc. in 1912. He enlisted in the militia in 1909 and went to Europe with the Canadian Expeditionary Force at the outbreak of World War I in 1914. While there he helped make advances in the science of artillery, and was wounded twice. By the end of the war he was in command of all of the Canadian Corps artillery. In 1920 he enlisted in the regular army and became Chief of the General Staff in 1929. In 1935 he became president of the National Research Council of Canada. In 1939 he led the Canadian army into World War II, and was originally considered for the position of Supreme Commander of the Allied Expeditionary Force until the Americans threatened to withdraw from the war unless General Dwight D. Eisenhower was chosen. McNaughton becomes commanding officer of the First Canadian Infantry Division. Under his leadership, the Division grows and is reorganized as a corps (1940), and then as an army (1942). McNaughton's contribution to the development of new techniques is outstanding, especially in the field of detection and weaponry, including the discarding sabot projectile. He is however criticized for his poor judgement regarding military strategy especially his approval of the ill-fated operation against Dieppe. His obstinate opposition to the fragmentation of Canadian troops stationed in Great Britain antagonized both the British senior Staff and the Canadian government.

Pressured by critics and weakened by health problems, McNaughton resigned his command in December 1943.

McNaughton strongly supported voluntary enlistment rather than conscription. This view was also held by Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King, who wanted to make McNaughton the first Canadian-born Governor General of Canada. Instead, McNaughton became Minister of National Defence

The Saskatoon Police Service Fraud Section has received at least 3 complaints in the last week regarding fraudulent vehicle purchases.

In each case a Saskatoon resident either responded to an ad on an Internet classified site, or they were directed to a hotmail account through a newspaper classified ad. The ads offered vehicles for sale outside of Canada and the prospective buyers exchanged a series of emails and vehicle pictures with the sellers. The buyers then completed the purchase by using a money-gram, sent to the seller. In each case the purchaser did not receive anything in return.

Fraud investigators remind residents to use caution when making a purchase on the Internet. While there are millions of legitimate transactions daily, fraudulent activity exists. Fraudsters will take steps to make transactions seem legitimate, even spoofing finance sites claiming to protect the purchaser. However, residents must remember the rules of "buyer beware".

Anyone with a similar complaint is asked to call the Saskatoon Police Service Fraud Section at 975-8259.

The Saskatoon Police Service Fraud Section would once again like to remind the public of fraudulent scams that continue to plague the internet.

Phishers attempt to fraudulently acquire sensitive information such as usernames, passwords and credit card details, by masquerading as a trustworthy entity over your computer.

The basic rule to remember is that legitimate financial institutions already have your personal codes or numbers and will never ask you for them over the internet or the telephone.

If you receive this type of e-mail do not respond to it, please delete it.

when the standing Minister, James Ralston was forced to resign after the Conscriptioin Crisis of 1944. McNaughton was soon pressured into calling for conscription despite King's wishes, a popular move for some Canadians but an equally unpopular one for many others. McNaughton was unable to win a seat in Parliament and re-signed in 1945. After the war he served on the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission and as Canada's Ambassador to the United Nations, as well as many other international committees, until his death in 1966.

We MUST have an Indoor Program Director, or we will be unable to offer any indoor programs next year. Don't be shy, come out and help the Community. If interested contact Jim Earle.

I thought I would send a reminder to let everyone know we are still in need of a soccer coordinator. If we don't have a coordinator, we won't be able to have a spring league in Montgomery. Thanks, Earl Johnson, Sports Director for contact.

The first couple to be shown in bed together on prime time TV were Fred and Wilma Flintstone.

In English pubs, ale is orderd by pints and quarts...So in old England, when customers got unruly, the bartender would yell at them 'Mind your pints and quarts, and settle down.'

It's where we get the phrase 'mind your P's and Q's.'

This report provides information on property crime for the previous month for your community. These statistics are collected through a city mapping system. Please be aware that the boundaries for your Community and the boundaries for the mapping system may not be identical and therefore some addresses in the Community Association Report may have been unintentionally included or excluded.

To understand your Community Association Report, it may be helpful to know that the statistics only reflect incidents reported to the Saskatoon Police Service, and not necessarily the total number of incidents, as many go unreported. To protect the identity of the victims, incidents are reported by the block in which they occurred and not by the specific address. A break and enter to a residence, includes a break and enter to an attached garage. A break and enter to other, includes a break and enter to an unattached garage or shed. Theft under, includes the offense of shoplifting from a business. Mischief includes the offenses of property damage and graffiti.

It was the accepted practice in Babylon 4,000 years ago that for a month after the wedding, the bride's father would supply his son-in-law with all the mead he could drink. Mead is a honry beer and because their calendar was lunar based, this period was called the honey month which we know today as the honeymoon.
